Homenetmen Hrashq has the highest ideals of sport and expects all parents, family members and spectators to honor Sports and Competition. All Hrashq parents, family members, caregivers and spectators should observe the following code:

1. Remember athletes are participating for their enjoyment. Encourage participation.
2. Consider that our athletes learn best by example; applaud good performances and efforts from all individuals and teams. Show respect and congratulate all participants on their performance, including opponents, regardless of the games or practice outcome.
3. Encourage athletes and coaches to follow the rules and the officials' decisions, and to settle disagreements without resorting to hostility or violence.
4. Never ridicule or yell at people for making a mistake or losing the competition or drills during practice.
5. Respect the decisions of coaches and officials and teach athletes to do the same.
6. Show appreciation for all volunteers, including coaches, officials, and athletic directors. (Remember, without them there would be no participation.)
7. Any issues with Coaches/Volunteers please direct concerns to Athletic Director or a Member of the Hrashq Board before or after practice or email Hrashq Board Parent Representative (Do not approach any coach during practice with concerns unless its life threatening).
8. Violence or abusive speech in any form, including swearing and/or inappropriate language by spectators, coaches, officials or players will not be tolerated at any Hrashq practice and competitions.
9. Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person regardless of their gender, age, ability, cultural background or religion.

Homenetmen Hrashq reserves the right to dismiss parents, family members, caregivers and/or spectators from any Hrashq training session or event if the above code is violated. Repeated or severe violations of this Code of Conduct may result in suspension or expulsion from Homenetmen Hrashq practices and competitions.
